Weekly Message

Welcome back everyone to a new half-term. It is certainly set to be an extremely busy one on the run up to Christmas! A huge well done to our Primary 1 pupils who have completed their first week on a full day schedule.

Over the half-term holidays, work commenced on our mainstream playground to improve our outdoor facilities at Tullygally Primary School. We look forward to seeing the children enjoy these new resources in the coming weeks and months.

Please do continue to read through the Weekly Newsletter each Friday to read the latest news in school and find important information for upcoming week.

How does it work?

Each time you visit Tesco to make a purchase of any value, you can request a token which you place in the relevant box for Tullygally Specialist Provision in store. The organisation with the highest number of votes across the region will receive up to £1500.

What Tesco stores can I vote in?
 You can vote in Portadown, Lurgan and Craigavon Extra until 31st December.

Anti-bullying Week 2025

Tullygally Primary School participated in Anti-bullying Week this week - a national campaign coordinated by the Anti-Bullying Alliance. The theme this year was 'Power for Good' - a message that reminds us all of the incredible impact we can have when we choose to use our influence to help others. On Thursday, the children wore an odd pair of socks to school to celebrate what makes each person unique.

This week our P6/7 pupils took part in their first interactive session for the OUR Generation Programme with PlayBoard NI.
